Zoo Factory Joins The Nutriment Company

We are pleased to announce that Zoo Factory has become part of The Nutriment Company, a leading European group specializing in premium natural pet nutrition. This strategic step marks an important milestone in our development and significantly strengthens our position in the pet care market.

By joining The Nutriment Company, Zoo Factory gains access to:

- A strong international network of premium pet brands
- Expanded product portfolio in natural and raw pet nutrition
- Enhanced logistics and supply chain capabilities
- Shared expertise in innovation, quality, and market development

For our partners, this means:

- Even more competitive and attractive product offering
- Greater availability and reliability of supply
- Continued commitment to high-quality standards
- New growth opportunities in the premium pet segment

Zoo Factory will continue to operate as a trusted distribution partner, now supported by the strength and expertise of The Nutriment Company.

BESTSELLERS

In the ever-growing landscape of pet ownership, the demand for top-notch pet products is on a steady incline. This upward trend not only reflects the deep bond between pet owners and their furry companions but also opens promising opportunities for distributors to make a significant impact in this flourishing market. Recognizing the increasing affection and care that pet owners dedicate to their beloved animals, we can strategically position ourselves as providers of a comprehensive range of high-quality pet products. From best quality pet snacks and supplements that addresses specific dietary needs to toys and hygienic supplies that ensure the well-being of pets' fur and skin. This way the distributors of HILTON, PETNER and ANIFORTE products have the chance to cater to the diverse needs of the discerning pet owners.
